1 2019. The parties also jointly stipulate to continue the briefing and hearing deadlines for 30 2 days.

3 Good cause exists to grant this motion because Plaintiff and Defendants have met and 4 conferred and are still meeting and conferring to reach a mutually beneficial resolution regarding 5 their discovery dispute. The parties are working in good faith to reach an informal agreement 6 regarding the issue of the preservation of the seeds and believe an informal resolution may be 7 practicable. Given the complicated nature of the location and preservation of the seeds, a 30-day 8 extension to further meet and confer is necessary so the parties have sufficient time to make any 9 necessary arrangements. Furthermore, judicial time and resources will likely be conserved 10 through the granting of this joint stipulation and as a result the parties' dispute may be resolved 11 without the need for briefing or a hearing.

12 The parties propose that a granting of this joint stipulation would continue the dates as 13 follows: Meet and confer to be completed no later than Monday, October 14, 2019. If the parties
14 are unable to reach a resolution, Plaintiff shall file a motion no later than Monday, October 28, 15 2019. Defendant shall file a response no later than Monday, November 4, 2019. Plaintiff shall 16 file a reply no later than Monday, November 11, 2019. motion hearing is proposed to be set for 17 Monday, November 18, 2019 at 9:00 a.m., in Reno Courtroom 1 before Magistrate Judge Carla 18 Baldwin Carry, or alternatively, at another date and time, depending on the Court's availability.
